Join us for a special event on The Parade

EILEEN IVERS and IMMIGRANT SOUL

Celtic Violin Virtuoso Kicks-off
New Parade Event Series

Thursday, July 22 at 7pm

FREE- bring a chair

Eileen Ivers will change the way you think about the violin at her only Connecticut performance here in New London at the newly renovated Parade Plaza on the corner of State & Bank Street. Produced by Hygienic Art, New London Music Festival and the City of New London, this special community concert is free and open to all. Attendees are encouraged to bring a chair for the performance (and to leave it behind once the dancing begins!).

It is a rare and select grade of spectacular artists whose work is so boldly imaginative and clearly virtuosic that it alters the medium. It has been said that the task of respectfully exploring the traditions and progression of the Celtic fiddle is quite literally on Eileen Ivers' shoulders. The Washington Post states, "she suggests the future of the Celtic fiddle." The New York Times has called her no less than "the Jimi Hendrix of violin."

In the Art Park:

Summer Nights in the District:
BAREFOOT TRUTH
with RAISE THE RENT

Please join us:

Saturday, July 24, 7-11pm

suggested donation $7

Mystic based Barefoot Truth started as an acoustic duo and has grown steadily to its current make-up as a five-piece rock/pop band. Their live shows are infectious, their songs are hook-heavy, and their youthful energy makes listeners believe that, yes, maybe each of us can indeed make a positive impact on one other and on our planet. In fact, the band says the concept behind their latest record 'Threads' is nothing less than "universal consciousness."

Raise the Rent (formerly Roadside Attractions) are an exciting New London swing and string act led by sweet singing chanteuse Daphne Glover (Treasurer at Hygienic Art) and multi-instrumentalist Craig Edwards. The group winds its way through many styles and genres and the results are always infectious.
